

A portrait of Chris Clauwaert, a middle-aged man with a friendly expression, looking slightly to his right. He is wearing a purple baseball cap and a matching purple high-visibility jacket with reflective silver stripes on the sleeves and waist. The jacket has two logos: 'Gemeenschapswacht' on the left chest and 'TURNHOUT PREVENTIE' on the right chest. A clipboard with papers and pens is tucked into a pocket on his left side. The background is a blurred outdoor setting.

'Mensen mogen me altijd aanspreken voor advies'
