

Satisfaction measurement Flexbus De Lijn

Welcome!

De Lijn is constantly working on better services. With this survey, they, IGEMO and Ghent University want to find out how satisfied you are with De Lijn and its recently offered services in the form of a Flexbus system. Your personal opinion will of course be treated in complete confidentiality. It is never passed on individually, and all results are processed together.

Your participation is completely voluntary and takes approximately 12 minutes of your time. You can always track your progress via the gray bar at the top of the page, and leave when it gets too long for you. For questions and comments you can always contact us via pieter.dresselaers@igemo.be.

Thanks in advance for your time and effort!

This research is part of the European Interreg project called 'MOVE' or 'Mobility Opportunities Valuable to Everybody' (<https://northsearegion.eu/move/about/> (<https://northsearegion.eu/move/about/>)).

Since 2 September 2019 you can travel with the Flexbus Klein-Brabant, instead of the previous Belbus. It is a pilot project of De Lijn, Bornem and Puurs-Sint-Amands to make the Belbus more flexible. The Flexbus runs in the same Belbus area and, after reservation, stops at one of the Belbus stops. When the train or fixed busline does not (or only partial) offer a suitable solution for your trip, you can use the Flexbus.

For more information, please visit the following web page: <https://www.delijn.be/nl/belbus/flexbus-klein-brabant.html> (<https://www.delijn.be/nl/belbus/flexbus-klein-brabant.html>)
