

Climate resilience and water safety: Experimenting with adaptation dialogues in Dordrecht, the Netherlands

Thursday, 26 November 2020

Erwin Nugraha, Rik Heinen, Myrthe Leijstra, Berry Gersonius, Gül Özerol, Paul Sayers and Egon Baldal

C5a

Cluster for Cloud to Coast Climate
Change adaptation

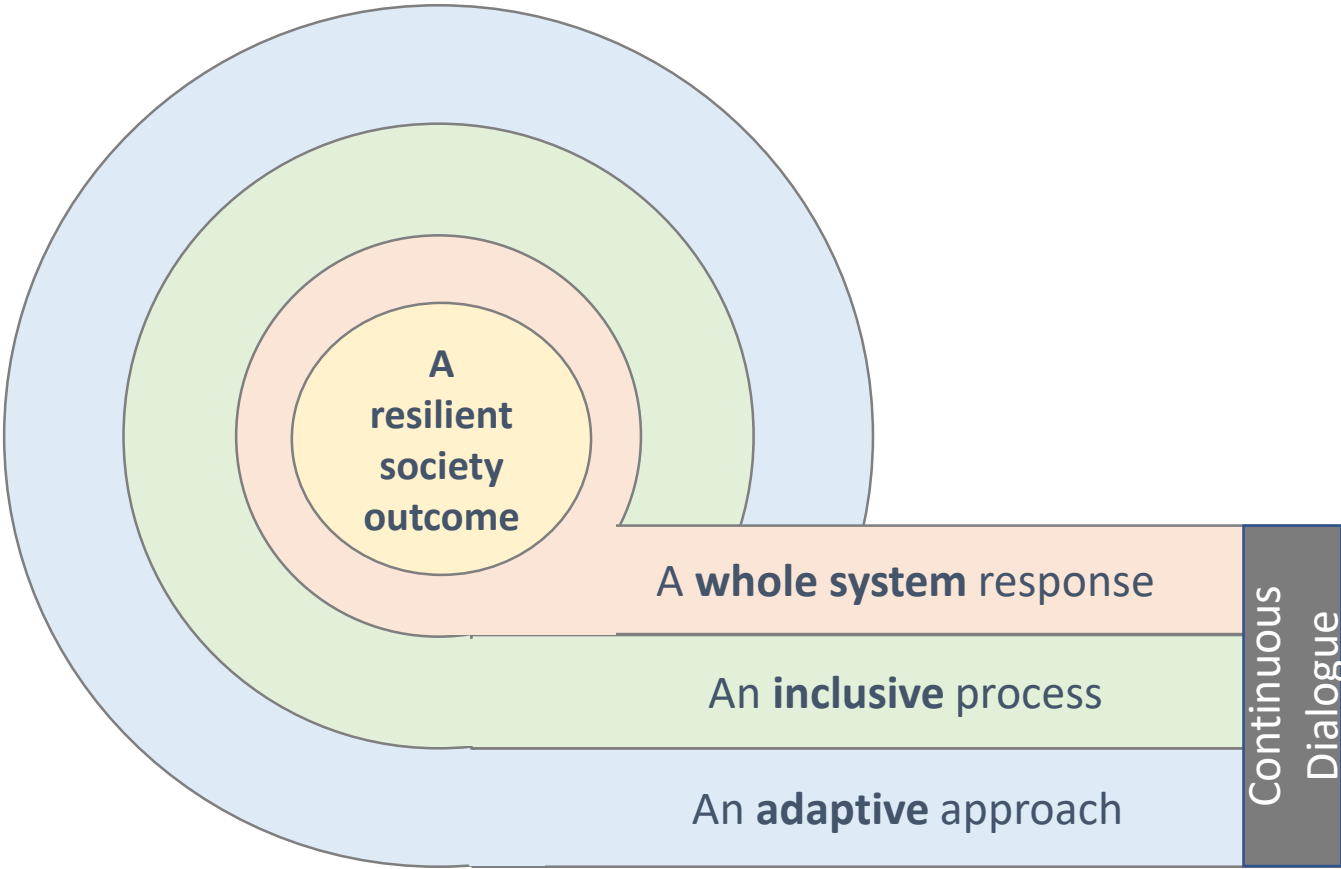

Interreg
North Sea Region
C5a

European Regional Development Fund

EUROPEAN UNION

Cloud-to-coast adaptation for enabling climate resilient future

Source: Sayers et al, 2020

Adaptation dialogues in Dordrecht

Second reflection workshop in Dordrecht, 15 September 2020

In the red circle: Dordrecht

Amsterdam

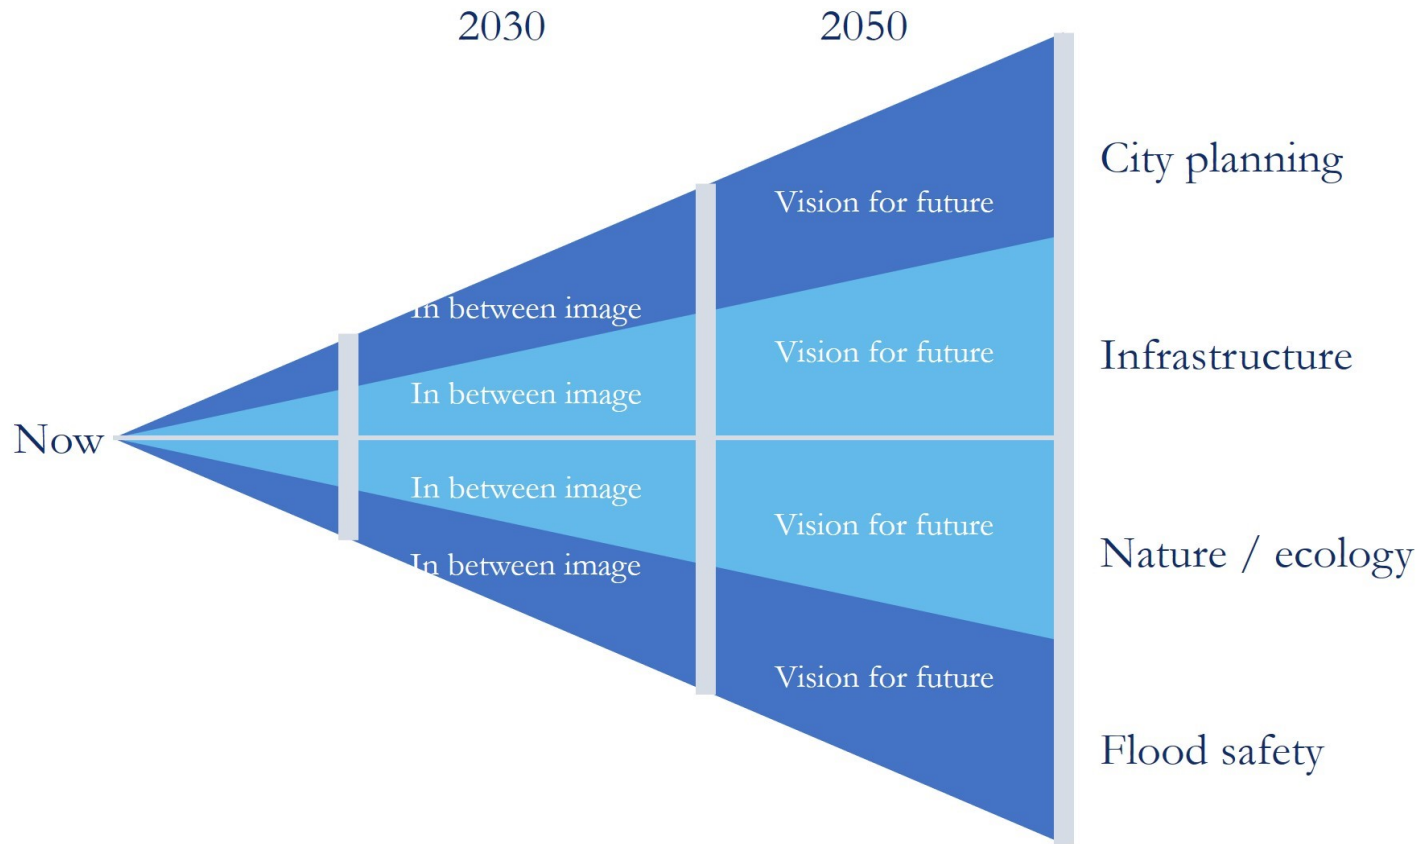

Rotterdam

The Start in Dordrecht

Backcasting

Source: Gersonius, 2020

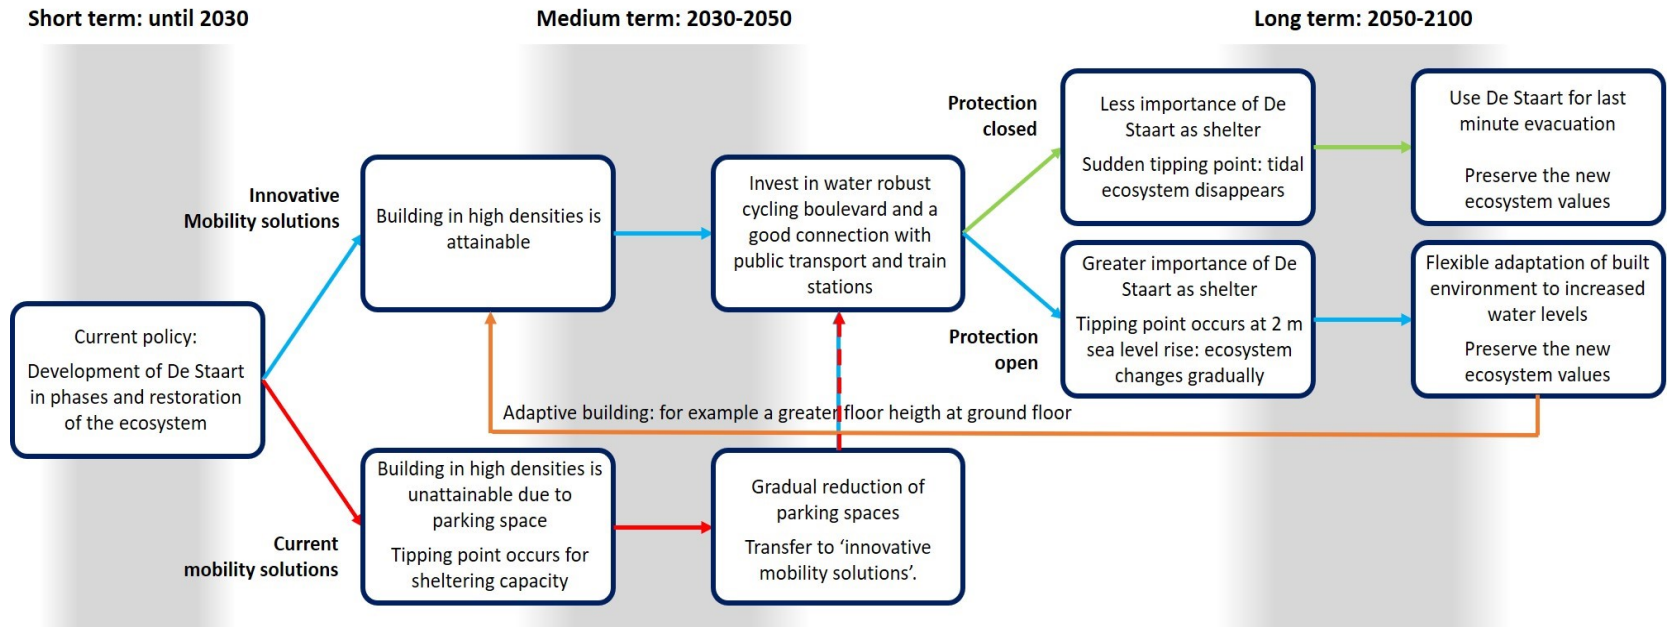

Interreg
North Sea Region
C5a

European Regional Development Fund

EUROPEAN UNION

Adaptation pathways

Figuur: Adaptation pathways map for De Staart, with the effects (left) and measures (right) for the medium and long term. The four routes through the map are shown in color codes: blue, blue-green, red-blue and red-green.

Source: Gersonius, 2020

Reflections and lesson learned

Adaptation dialogue process

- Holistic approach
- Process enables no-regret approach
- Allows both focused as broad discussions

